

SRA Financial Services (Conduct of Business) Rules

Introduction

The SRA, through the Law Society, is a designated professional body under Part 20 of FSMA. This means that firms (including sole practices) authorised by us may carry on certain regulated financial services activities without being regulated by the FCA if they can meet the conditions in section 327 of FSMA.

The SRA Financial Services (Scope) Rules set out the scope of the regulated financial services activities that may be undertaken by firms authorised by us and not regulated by the FCA. These rules regulate the way in which firms carry on such exempt regulated financial services activities and the way in which firms that are dually regulated by us and the FCA carry on their non-mainstream regulated activities.

These rules do not apply to solicitors, RELs and RFLs practising outside firms that are authorised by us.

This introduction does not form part of the SRA Financial Services (Conduct of Business) Rules.

1.1 Apart from rule 2 (Status Disclosure), these rules apply to:

1.21.2 authorised bodies which are not regulated by the FCA;

1.3 authorised bodies which are regulated by the FCA, but only in respect of their non-mainstream regulated activities; and

1.4 the managers and employees of authorised bodies in (a) and (b) above, and references to "you" in these rules should be read accordingly.

1.2 Where an authorised body is a licensed body, these rules apply only in relation to the activities regulated by the SRA in accordance with the terms of the body's licence.

1.3 Rule 2 applies only to authorised bodies which are not regulated by the FCA.

2.1 Notwithstanding the wider information obligations in the SRA Codes of Conduct, you must give the client the following information in writing in a manner that is clear, fair and not misleading before providing a service which includes the carrying on of a regulated financial services activity and in good time before the conclusion of a contract of insurance:

2.2 a statement that you are not authorised by the FCA;

2.3 your name and practising address;

- 2.4 the nature of the regulated financial services activities carried on by you, and the fact that they are limited in scope;
- 2.5 a statement that you are authorised and regulated by the SRA; and
- 2.6 a statement explaining that complaints and redress mechanisms are provided through the SRA and the Legal Ombudsman.
- 2.7 Before you provide a service, which includes the carrying on of an insurance distribution activity with or for a client and in good time before the conclusion of a contract of insurance, you must state that you are an ancillary insurance intermediary and make the following statement in writing to the client in a way that is clear, fair and not misleading:

"[This firm is]/[We are] not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority. However, we are included on the register maintained by the Financial Conduct Authority so that we can carry on insurance distribution activity, which is broadly the advising on, selling and administration of insurance contracts. This part of our business, including arrangements for complaints or redress if something goes wrong, is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. The register can be accessed via the Financial Conduct Authority website at www.fca.org.uk/firms/financial-services-register."

Communication and disclosure

- Log in or register to post comments

9.1 You must ensure that, in relation to insurance distribution:

9.2 you communicate all information, including marketing communications, in a way that is clear, fair and not misleading.

9.3 your marketing communications are always clearly identifiable as such.

General information to be provided

- Log in or register to post comments

10.1 In good time before the conclusion of a contract of insurance, you must disclose the following information to clients:

10.2 whether you provide a personal recommendation about the insurance products offered;

10.3 the procedures allowing clients and other interested parties to register complaints about you and information about the out-of-court complaint and redress procedures available for the settlement of disputes between you and your clients;

10.4 whether you are representing the client or acting for and on behalf of the insurer;

10.5 whether you have a direct or indirect holding representing 10% or more of the voting rights or capital in a relevant insurance undertaking;

10.6 whether a given insurance undertaking or its parent undertaking has a direct or indirect holding representing 10% or more of the voting rights or capital in the authorised body.

Scope of service

- Log in or register to post comments

- 11.1 Where you propose, or give a client a personal recommendation for, a contract of insurance, then in good time before the conclusion of an initial contract of insurance and if necessary on its amendment or renewal, you must provide the client with information on whether you:
- 11.2 give a personal recommendation on the basis of a fair and personal analysis;
 - 11.3 are under a contractual obligation to conduct insurance distribution exclusively with one or more insurance undertakings, in which case you must provide the names of those insurance undertakings; or
 - 11.4 are not under a contractual obligation to conduct insurance distribution exclusively with one or more insurance undertakings and do not give advice on the basis of a fair and personal analysis, in which case you must provide the names of the insurance undertakings with which you may and do conduct business.
- 11.5 If you inform a client that you give a personal recommendation on the basis of a fair and personal analysis:
- 11.6 you must give that personal recommendation on the basis of an analysis of a sufficiently large number of insurance contracts available on the market to enable it to make that recommendation; and
 - 11.7 that personal recommendation must be in accordance with professional criteria regarding which contract of insurance would be adequate to meet the client's needs.

Use of intermediaries

- Log in or register to post comments

13.1 You must not use, or propose to use, the services of another person consisting of:

13.2 insurance distribution;

13.3 reinsurance distribution;

13.4 insurance distribution activity; or

13.5 home finance mediation activity, unless the person in relation to the activity is:

.7 registered in an EEA State for the purposes of the IDD; or

.8 in relation to insurance distribution activity, is not carrying this activity on in the EEA.

13.9 Before using the services of the intermediary, you must check:

13.10 the Financial Services Register; or

13.11 in relation to insurance distribution or reinsurance distribution carried on by an EEA firm, the register of its home state regulator, and use the services of that person only if the relevant register indicates that the person is registered for that purpose.

15.1 You must not:

15.2 be remunerated; or

15.3 remunerate or assess the performance of the firm's employees, in a way that conflicts with their duty to act in each client's best interest.

15.4 In particular, you must not make any arrangement by way of remuneration, sales target or otherwise that could provide an incentive to the firm or its employees to recommend a particular contract of insurance to a client when it could offer a different contract of insurance which would better meet its client's needs.

Means of communication to clients

- Log in or register to post comments

18.1 Rule 18 applies to all information required to be provided to a client in this Part.

18.2 You must communicate information to the client on paper or using any of the following means:

18.3 a durable medium other than paper where the following conditions are satisfied:

18.4 the use of a durable medium other than paper is appropriate in the context of the business conducted between the firm and the client; and

18.5 the client has been given the choice between information on paper and on a durable medium other than paper and has chosen a durable medium other than paper; or

18.6 on a website (where it does not constitute a durable medium) where the following conditions are satisfied:

18.7 the provision of that information by means of a website is appropriate in the context of the business conducted between you and the client;

18.8 the client has consented to the provision of that information by means of a website;

18.9 the client has been notified electronically of the address of the website, and the place on the website where that information can be accessed; and

18.10 you ensure that the information remains accessible on the website for such period of time as the client may reasonably need to consult it.

18.11 For the purposes of rules 18.2(a)(i) and (b)(i), the provision of information using a durable medium other than paper or by means of a website shall be regarded as appropriate in the context of the business conducted between you and the client if there is evidence that the client has regular access to the internet. The provision by the client of an e-mail address for the purposes of that business is sufficient evidence.

18.12 You must communicate the information:

18.13 in a clear and accurate manner, comprehensible to the client;

18.14 in an official language of the Member State in which the insured risk, or proposed insured risk, is situated or in any other language agreed upon by the parties; and 18.15 free of charge.

18.16 Where you communicate the information using a durable medium other than paper or by means of a website, you must, upon request and free of charge, send the client a paper copy of the information.

18.17 You must ensure that a client's choice or consent to receive the information by means of a website (whether a durable medium or where the conditions under rule 18.2(b) are satisfied) is an active and informed choice or consent.

18.22 In the case of services supplied to the client by telephone that are subject to the Financial Services (Distance Marketing) Regulations 2004:

18.29 the information must be given in accordance with those regulations; and

18.20 if prior to the conclusion of the contract of insurance the information is provided:

18.25 orally; or

18.20 on a durable medium other than paper,

you must also provide the information to the client in accordance with rule 18.2 immediately after the conclusion of the contract of insurance.

Cross-selling requirements where insurance is the ancillary product

- Log in or register to post comments

19.1 When you offer a non-insurance ancillary product or service as part of a package or in the same agreement with an insurance product, you must:

19.2 inform the client whether it is possible to buy the components separately and, if so must provide the client with an adequate description of:

19.3 the different components;

19.4 where applicable, any way in which the risk or insurance coverage resulting from the agreement or package differs from that associated with taking the components separately; and

19.5 provide the client with separate evidence of the charges and costs of each component.

19.6 When you offer an insurance product ancillary to and as part of a package or in the same agreement with a non-insurance product or service, you must offer the client the option of buying the non-insurance goods or services separately.

19.7 Rule 19.2 does not apply where the non-insurance product or service is any of the following:

19.8 investment service or activities;

19.9 a credit agreement as defined in point 3 of article 4 of the MCD which is:

19.10an MCD credit agreement;

19.11an exempt MCD credit agreement;

19.12a CBTL credit agreement; or

19.13a credit agreement referred to in articles 72G(3B) and (4) of the Regulated Activities Order; or

19.14a payment account as defined in point 3 of Article 2 of Directive 2014/92/EU.

19.15Rule 19 shall not prevent the distribution of insurance products which provide coverage for various types of risks (multi-risk insurance policies).

19.16In the cases referred to in rules 19.1 and 19.2, you must still comply with other provisions in this Part relating to the offer and sale of insurance products that form part of the package or agreement, including specifying the demands and needs of the client in accordance with rule 12.

21.1 You must ensure that the client is given objective and relevant information about a policy in good time prior to the conclusion of the policy, so that the client can make an informed decision.

21.2 You must provide the information in rule 21.1 to the client:

21.3 whether or not you give a personal recommendation; and

21.4 irrespective of the fact that the policy is offered as part of a package with:

21.5 a non-insurance product or service; or

21.6 another policy.

21.7 You must ensure that the level of information provided takes into account the complexity of the policy and the individual circumstances of the client.

21.8 When dealing with a client who is an individual and who is acting for purposes which are outside his trade or profession the information provided under rule 21.1 must include an Insurance Product Information Document.

21.9 You must provide the information required in rule 21.4 by way of an Insurance Product Information Document for each policy (other than a pure protection contract).

21.10 Where you distribute contracts of insurance, you must have in place adequate arrangements to:

21.11 obtain from the manufacturer of the contract of insurance:

21.12 all appropriate information on the contract of insurance and the product approval process; and

21.13 the identified target market of the contract of insurance; and
