4.1 A period of recognised training must:

- 4.2 unless regulation 4.2 applies, be of a duration of a total of at least two years full time, or equivalent;
- 4.3 ensure that the trainee has applied and developed the skills as set out in the Practice Skills Standards;
- 4.4 be appropriately supervised by solicitors and other individuals who have adequate legal knowledge and experience in the practice area they are supervising and the necessary skills to provide effective supervision; and
- 4.5 include regular appraisal of the trainee's performance and development, and review of the trainee's record of training.

4.6 An authorised training provider may recognise previous work-based experience the trainee has undertaken as satisfying up to six months of the required period of recognised training, provided:

- 4.7 the experience was gained in the three years preceding the commencement of the period of recognised training;
- 4.8 the experience enabled the trainee to apply and develop one or more of the skills as set out in the Practice Skills Standards; and
- 4.9 the trainee was supervised, and was subject to an appraisal of their performance and development, during the period of work-based experience.
